Section 1 / Page 1

This section outlines the general provisions, covenants, and warranties customary in commercial real estate transactions of this magnitude. The Purchaser acknowledges that they have undertaken their own independent due diligence regarding the physical condition, environmental status, and statutory compliance of the improvements. Subject to the specific warranties detailed herein, the property is acquired on an 'as is, where is' basis. The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.

The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.
