

INVESTMENT COMMITTEE MINUTE - POLICY HURDLES

Section 1 / Page 1

MACRO ASSUMPTIONS & TARGET RETURNS

Any direct property acquisition must clear the 10-year Australian Government bond plus 350 bps unlevered. The current bond assumption to be utilized in all modelling is 4.65%. Therefore, the internal policy hurdle is set at an 8.15% unlevered 10-year IRR.

This section outlines the general provisions, covenants, and warranties customary in commercial real estate transactions of this magnitude. The Purchaser acknowledges that they have undertaken their own independent due diligence regarding the physical condition, environmental status, and statutory compliance of the improvements. Subject to the specific warranties detailed herein, the property is acquired on an 'as is, where is' basis. The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.

This section outlines the general provisions, covenants, and warranties customary in commercial real estate transactions of this magnitude. The Purchaser acknowledges that they have undertaken their own independent due diligence regarding the physical condition, environmental status, and statutory compliance of the improvements. Subject to the specific warranties detailed herein, the property is acquired on an 'as is, where is' basis. The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.

INVESTMENT COMMITTEE MINUTE - POLICY HURDLES

Section 2 / Page 2

REJECTED ALLOCATIONS

The committee has formally rejected Option C. Option C is a leaseback arrangement of 12 Wedgewood at $168 per sqm net (814,800 per year) with nil capital deployed. Because it offers no direct acquisition exposure or hard asset backing, it fails the primary mandate of this capital allocation.

This section outlines the general provisions, covenants, and warranties customary in commercial real estate transactions of this magnitude. The Purchaser acknowledges that they have undertaken their own independent due diligence regarding the physical condition, environmental status, and statutory compliance of the improvements. Subject to the specific warranties detailed herein, the property is acquired on an 'as is, where is' basis. The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.

This section outlines the general provisions, covenants, and warranties customary in commercial real estate transactions of this magnitude. The Purchaser acknowledges that they have undertaken their own independent due diligence regarding the physical condition, environmental status, and statutory compliance of the improvements. Subject to the specific warranties detailed herein, the property is acquired on an 'as is, where is' basis. The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.