

MASTER LEASE SCHEDULE & TENANCY RENT ROLL

Section 1 / Page 1

This section outlines the general provisions, covenants, and warranties customary in commercial real estate transactions of this magnitude. The Purchaser acknowledges that they have undertaken their own independent due diligence regarding the physical condition, environmental status, and statutory compliance of the improvements. Subject to the specific warranties detailed herein, the property is acquired on an 'as is, where is' basis. The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.

This section outlines the general provisions, covenants, and warranties customary in commercial real estate transactions of this magnitude. The Purchaser acknowledges that they have undertaken their own independent due diligence regarding the physical condition, environmental status, and statutory compliance of the improvements. Subject to the specific warranties detailed herein, the property is acquired on an 'as is, where is' basis. The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.

This section outlines the general provisions, covenants, and warranties customary in commercial real estate transactions of this magnitude. The Purchaser acknowledges that they have undertaken their own independent due diligence regarding the physical condition, environmental status, and statutory compliance of the improvements. Subject to the specific warranties detailed herein, the property is acquired on an 'as is, where is' basis. The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.

This section outlines the general provisions, covenants, and warranties customary in commercial real estate transactions of this magnitude. The Purchaser acknowledges that they have undertaken their own independent due diligence regarding the physical condition, environmental status, and statutory compliance of the improvements. Subject to the specific warranties detailed herein, the property is acquired on an 'as is, where is' basis. The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.

MASTER LEASE SCHEDULE & TENANCY RENT ROLL

Section 2 / Page 2

This section outlines the general provisions, covenants, and warranties customary in commercial real estate transactions of this magnitude. The Purchaser acknowledges that they have undertaken their own independent due diligence regarding the physical condition, environmental status, and statutory compliance of the improvements. Subject to the specific warranties detailed herein, the property is acquired on an 'as is, where is' basis. The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.

This section outlines the general provisions, covenants, and warranties customary in commercial real estate transactions of this magnitude. The Purchaser acknowledges that they have undertaken their own independent due diligence regarding the physical condition, environmental status, and statutory compliance of the improvements. Subject to the specific warranties detailed herein, the property is acquired on an 'as is, where is' basis. The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.

This section outlines the general provisions, covenants, and warranties customary in commercial real estate transactions of this magnitude. The Purchaser acknowledges that they have undertaken their own independent due diligence regarding the physical condition, environmental status, and statutory compliance of the improvements. Subject to the specific warranties detailed herein, the property is acquired on an 'as is, where is' basis. The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.

This section outlines the general provisions, covenants, and warranties customary in commercial real estate

transactions of this magnitude. The Purchaser acknowledges that they have undertaken their own independent due diligence regarding the physical condition, environmental status, and statutory compliance of the improvements. Subject to the specific warranties detailed herein, the property is acquired on an 'as is, where is' basis. The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.

MASTER LEASE SCHEDULE & TENANCY RENT ROLL

Section 3 / Page 3

OPTION B (88 Links Rd) - TENANCY SCHEDULE

The verified passing income for Option B is 684,369 AUD/yr. While the vendor's IM states a fully-leased target income of 963,900 AUD/yr, the leases for the remaining 29% (equating to 279,531 AUD/yr) are missing from the data room bundle and remain unverified. We cannot underwrite this unverified portion.

This section outlines the general provisions, covenants, and warranties customary in commercial real estate transactions of this magnitude. The Purchaser acknowledges that they have undertaken their own independent due diligence regarding the physical condition, environmental status, and statutory compliance of the improvements. Subject to the specific warranties detailed herein, the property is acquired on an 'as is, where is' basis. The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.

This section outlines the general provisions, covenants, and warranties customary in commercial real estate transactions of this magnitude. The Purchaser acknowledges that they have undertaken their own independent due diligence regarding the physical condition, environmental status, and statutory compliance of the improvements. Subject to the specific warranties detailed herein, the property is acquired on an 'as is, where is' basis. The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.

MASTER LEASE SCHEDULE & TENANCY RENT ROLL

Section 4 / Page 4

This section outlines the general provisions, covenants, and warranties customary in commercial real estate transactions of this magnitude. The Purchaser acknowledges that they have undertaken their own independent due diligence regarding the physical condition, environmental status, and statutory compliance of the improvements. Subject to the specific warranties detailed herein, the property is acquired on an 'as is, where is' basis. The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.

This section outlines the general provisions, covenants, and warranties customary in commercial real estate transactions of this magnitude. The Purchaser acknowledges that they have undertaken their own independent due diligence regarding the physical condition, environmental status, and statutory compliance of the improvements. Subject to the specific warranties detailed herein, the property is acquired on an 'as is, where is' basis. The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.

This section outlines the general provisions, covenants, and warranties customary in commercial real estate transactions of this magnitude. The Purchaser acknowledges that they have undertaken their own independent due diligence regarding the physical condition, environmental status, and statutory compliance of the improvements. Subject to the specific warranties detailed herein, the property is acquired on an 'as is, where is' basis. The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.

This section outlines the general provisions, covenants, and warranties customary in commercial real estate

transactions of this magnitude. The Purchaser acknowledges that they have undertaken their own independent due diligence regarding the physical condition, environmental status, and statutory compliance of the improvements. Subject to the specific warranties detailed herein, the property is acquired on an 'as is, where is' basis. The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.

MASTER LEASE SCHEDULE & TENANCY RENT ROLL

Section 5 / Page 5

OUTGOINGS & RECOVERY METRICS

An analysis of the executed lease structures across the portfolio indicates a gross outgoings recovery rate of 92%. The majority of leases are structured as net, with standard carve-outs for structural repairs and statutory land tax on a single-holding basis.

This section outlines the general provisions, covenants, and warranties customary in commercial real estate transactions of this magnitude. The Purchaser acknowledges that they have undertaken their own independent due diligence regarding the physical condition, environmental status, and statutory compliance of the improvements. Subject to the specific warranties detailed herein, the property is acquired on an 'as is, where is' basis. The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.

This section outlines the general provisions, covenants, and warranties customary in commercial real estate transactions of this magnitude. The Purchaser acknowledges that they have undertaken their own independent due diligence regarding the physical condition, environmental status, and statutory compliance of the improvements. Subject to the specific warranties detailed herein, the property is acquired on an 'as is, where is' basis. The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.

MASTER LEASE SCHEDULE & TENANCY RENT ROLL

Section 6 / Page 6

This section outlines the general provisions, covenants, and warranties customary in commercial real estate transactions of this magnitude. The Purchaser acknowledges that they have undertaken their own independent due diligence regarding the physical condition, environmental status, and statutory compliance of the improvements. Subject to the specific warranties detailed herein, the property is acquired on an 'as is, where is' basis. The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.

This section outlines the general provisions, covenants, and warranties customary in commercial real estate transactions of this magnitude. The Purchaser acknowledges that they have undertaken their own independent due diligence regarding the physical condition, environmental status, and statutory compliance of the improvements. Subject to the specific warranties detailed herein, the property is acquired on an 'as is, where is' basis. The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.

This section outlines the general provisions, covenants, and warranties customary in commercial real estate transactions of this magnitude. The Purchaser acknowledges that they have undertaken their own independent due diligence regarding the physical condition, environmental status, and statutory compliance of the improvements. Subject to the specific warranties detailed herein, the property is acquired on an 'as is, where is' basis. The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.

This section outlines the general provisions, covenants, and warranties customary in commercial real estate

transactions of this magnitude. The Purchaser acknowledges that they have undertaken their own independent due diligence regarding the physical condition, environmental status, and statutory compliance of the improvements. Subject to the specific warranties detailed herein, the property is acquired on an 'as is, where is' basis. The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.

MASTER LEASE SCHEDULE & TENANCY RENT ROLL

Section 7 / Page 7

This section outlines the general provisions, covenants, and warranties customary in commercial real estate transactions of this magnitude. The Purchaser acknowledges that they have undertaken their own independent due diligence regarding the physical condition, environmental status, and statutory compliance of the improvements. Subject to the specific warranties detailed herein, the property is acquired on an 'as is, where is' basis. The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.

This section outlines the general provisions, covenants, and warranties customary in commercial real estate transactions of this magnitude. The Purchaser acknowledges that they have undertaken their own independent due diligence regarding the physical condition, environmental status, and statutory compliance of the improvements. Subject to the specific warranties detailed herein, the property is acquired on an 'as is, where is' basis. The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.

This section outlines the general provisions, covenants, and warranties customary in commercial real estate transactions of this magnitude. The Purchaser acknowledges that they have undertaken their own independent due diligence regarding the physical condition, environmental status, and statutory compliance of the improvements. Subject to the specific warranties detailed herein, the property is acquired on an 'as is, where is' basis. The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.

This section outlines the general provisions, covenants, and warranties customary in commercial real estate

transactions of this magnitude. The Purchaser acknowledges that they have undertaken their own independent due diligence regarding the physical condition, environmental status, and statutory compliance of the improvements. Subject to the specific warranties detailed herein, the property is acquired on an 'as is, where is' basis. The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.

MASTER LEASE SCHEDULE & TENANCY RENT ROLL

Section 8 / Page 8

This section outlines the general provisions, covenants, and warranties customary in commercial real estate transactions of this magnitude. The Purchaser acknowledges that they have undertaken their own independent due diligence regarding the physical condition, environmental status, and statutory compliance of the improvements. Subject to the specific warranties detailed herein, the property is acquired on an 'as is, where is' basis. The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.

This section outlines the general provisions, covenants, and warranties customary in commercial real estate transactions of this magnitude. The Purchaser acknowledges that they have undertaken their own independent due diligence regarding the physical condition, environmental status, and statutory compliance of the improvements. Subject to the specific warranties detailed herein, the property is acquired on an 'as is, where is' basis. The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.

This section outlines the general provisions, covenants, and warranties customary in commercial real estate transactions of this magnitude. The Purchaser acknowledges that they have undertaken their own independent due diligence regarding the physical condition, environmental status, and statutory compliance of the improvements. Subject to the specific warranties detailed herein, the property is acquired on an 'as is, where is' basis. The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.

This section outlines the general provisions, covenants, and warranties customary in commercial real estate

transactions of this magnitude. The Purchaser acknowledges that they have undertaken their own independent due diligence regarding the physical condition, environmental status, and statutory compliance of the improvements. Subject to the specific warranties detailed herein, the property is acquired on an 'as is, where is' basis. The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.

MASTER LEASE SCHEDULE & TENANCY RENT ROLL

Section 9 / Page 9

This section outlines the general provisions, covenants, and warranties customary in commercial real estate transactions of this magnitude. The Purchaser acknowledges that they have undertaken their own independent due diligence regarding the physical condition, environmental status, and statutory compliance of the improvements. Subject to the specific warranties detailed herein, the property is acquired on an 'as is, where is' basis. The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.

This section outlines the general provisions, covenants, and warranties customary in commercial real estate transactions of this magnitude. The Purchaser acknowledges that they have undertaken their own independent due diligence regarding the physical condition, environmental status, and statutory compliance of the improvements. Subject to the specific warranties detailed herein, the property is acquired on an 'as is, where is' basis. The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.

This section outlines the general provisions, covenants, and warranties customary in commercial real estate transactions of this magnitude. The Purchaser acknowledges that they have undertaken their own independent due diligence regarding the physical condition, environmental status, and statutory compliance of the improvements. Subject to the specific warranties detailed herein, the property is acquired on an 'as is, where is' basis. The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.

This section outlines the general provisions, covenants, and warranties customary in commercial real estate

transactions of this magnitude. The Purchaser acknowledges that they have undertaken their own independent due diligence regarding the physical condition, environmental status, and statutory compliance of the improvements. Subject to the specific warranties detailed herein, the property is acquired on an 'as is, where is' basis. The Vendor warrants that, to the best of their knowledge, there are no outstanding statutory notices or encumbrances not previously disclosed in the data room.

Furthermore, both parties agree to execute all necessary instruments, deeds, and documents required to effect the transfer of title. The deposit shall be held in trust by the Vendor's solicitor pending completion. In the event of default by the Purchaser, the deposit shall be forfeited, without prejudice to the Vendor's right to pursue damages for breach of contract. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of these clauses shall be resolved via binding arbitration in New South Wales. Market conditions remain subject to macro-economic volatility, including OCR adjustments by the RBA and global supply chain constraints affecting capital works.